

NZF Group Limited (formally New Zealand Finance Holdings Limited)
March 2011 Capital Notes

What you need to do now

The NZF Group Limited (“NZF”) March 2011 unsecured and subordinated Capital Notes (“Capital Notes”), of which you are a holder matures on 15 March 2011 (“Maturity Date”). The Capital Notes have a Notification Date of 24 February 2011. This means you now need to make a decision in relation to your Capital Notes.

As advised to you in our letter, accompanying this Election Notice:

- NZF has elected to provide you, as a Noteholder, with the option to renew all of your Capital Notes on the New Conditions specified in this document and in the Election Notice (“Renewal Option”);
- If you do not elect to accept the Renewal Option, then NZF has elected that it will, on the Maturity Date, compulsorily redeem all of your Capital Notes by issuing new ordinary shares in NZF to you in accordance with the terms of the Trust Deed;
- NZF has elected to not redeem the Capital Notes for cash on the Maturity Date.

Election Notice

The Election Notice which is enclosed with this letter:

- (a) sets out the New Terms of the Capital Notes that will be available from 16 March 2011;
- (b) summarises your right to retain your Capital Notes; and
- (c) enables you to make your election to retain your Capital Notes on the New Conditions below.

New Conditions of the Capital Notes (“New Conditions”)

NZF is giving all Noteholders the opportunity to renew all (and not some) of their Capital Notes on the following New Conditions (“New Conditions”):

(a) New Maturity Date:	15 March 2016
(b) New Interest Rate:	6.00% per annum
(c) Interest Dates:	quarterly on 15 March, 15 June, 15 September and 15 December thereafter until, and including, the Final Interest Date
(d) Series known as:	March 2016 Capital Notes

Your decision

You now need to make a decision in relation to your Capital Notes and decide whether to renew all your Capital Notes on the New Conditions offered, or whether you wish to have them redeemed by being issued with new ordinary fully paid shares in NZF.

Action to be taken

If you wish to renew all of your Capital Notes on the New Conditions, you need to:

- Tick the box on the Election Notice;
- Sign the Election Notice in accordance with the instructions in the Election Notice;
- Return the Election Notice to the Capital Notes Registrar, Link Market Services Limited, so that it is received no later than 5pm on 24 February 2011.

If you do not elect to renew your Capital Notes on the New Conditions, or do not return your Election Notice within the prescribed timeframe, then NZF has elected to redeem your Capital Notes by issuing you with new ordinary fully paid shares in NZF in accordance with the provisions of the Trust Deed.

NZF has elected to not redeem the Capital Notes for cash on 15 March 2011.

If you have any doubts as to what you should do, please contact your share broker or financial advisor.

If you need assistance with completing the Election Notice, please contact the share registry (Link Market Services) or NZF on 0800 20 70 70.

Yours sincerely
